Sir:

This Statement is made to the facts that are relied upon to establish the unavailability of the non-signing inventor, Mr. Horen Chen.

Statement

1. On March 14, 2005, the undersigned had a telephone conversation with Mr. Horen Chen. The need for his signature on the inventor declaration was explained to Mr. Chen. Mr. Chen indicated that he would sign the Declaration and asked for us to send him the necessary paperwork.

2. On March 21, 2005, Mr. Chen was sent the required documents via Overnight Express at the address that he provided. (See Exhibit A for the letter to Mr. Chen and the Overnight Express receipt). The documents which were sent to Mr. Chen included: the originally filed reissue application (specification, drawings, and associated new claims 6-32); the current version of the claims which reflected the amendments of April 10, 2002, January 16, 2003, June 20, 2003, and March 4, 2004; two page Declaration; and additional sheet (PTO/SB/52). (See Exhibit A for the Declaration sent to Mr. Chen).

3. On March 22, 2005, Overnight Express delivered the documents identified in item 2 above to the residential address of Mr. Chen. Delivery required signature by the receiving party. (See Exhibit A for the delivery email confirmation.)

4. On April 12, 2005, a telephone call was placed to Mr. Chen. No one answered, and a voice message was left advising that we had not yet received the signed Declaration from him and inquired as to when we could expect the Declaration.

5. On April 15, 2005, a second telephone call was placed to Mr. Chen. During this call, Mr. Chen advised that he should be compensated for his efforts in reviewing the necessary papers and for signing the Declaration. When asked for the dollar amount that he would need in order to perform the necessary work, he stated that he did not know. Mr. Chen further advised that he was extremely busy and did not have time to review the documents, nor did he have time to assess how much money he would need to be paid to review and sign the Declaration. The urgency of this matter was explained to Mr. Chen, but he was steadfast in his refusal to sign the Declaration.

6. The last known address of Mr. Chen is: 19567 Chardonnay Court, Saratoga, California 95070.

Respectfully submitted,
